Fabian Salas & Lola Díaz

Houston Workshop
January 14th & 15th, 2011

Tireless researcher and maestro, remarkable dancer and connoisseur of the secrets of tango - Fabián Salas has brought light to old beliefs and opened new ways in the conception of the dance, creating an unmistakable style of dancing the Tango. He is the vertebral column of COSMOTANGO®. He is acclaimed as a teacher and performer by tango lovers around the world.

Fabián was a member of the original cast (1994-1995) of the award-winning (Best Musical) Argentine Tango show "Gotán", and also performed in the stage show "El Patio de la Morocha" (1993-1994) at the "Teatro Municipal General San Martín" in Buenos Aires. In 1997, he became one of the three principal dancers in the award-winning movie – "The Tango Lesson". Fabián Salas is the principal organizer and director of the Congreso Internacional de Tango Argentino (C.I.T.A.) - the world's most important annual event, which brings together in Buenos Aires all the tango lovers and the most representative artists of Argentine Tango.

Lola Díaz started dancing at the age of 5. At age 7, she joined the school of Teatro Colon, where she studied classical ballet and became part of the permanent staff at the theatre. She performed ballet under the direction of the world renowned dancer Julio Bocca. In addition to Ballet, her dance studies expanded to Jazz, Modern and Tango. As a tango dancer, though very young, she participated in a number of important productions:

- "La hora del Tango" Festival Classico Pompeiano 2007 - Danced with Pablo Verón.
- Pablo Verón's principal partner and choreography assistant for the "Nexus 2007" production.
- Principal roll and choreographer (both Tango and Ballet roles) in the "Tango Hereje 2006" clip.
